

Legibilities

Here's a running list of legibility examples as I find them or come up with them.

State understanding of people Each person must have a single first name, last name, birthdate, address.

State understanding of land Each piece of land has to be owned (and thus held accountable by) a single person.

Financial Success Your financial success is measured by whether you own a house or not, and if you do own a house, how nice it is and what type of neighborhood it is.

Academia will not comprehend a discovery unless it is in a peer reviewed journal.

School will not comprehend your level of skill unless it is reflected in test scores and assignments.
